

WEDDINGS

Minister: Rev. Sue Woods
Bala-Port Carling United Churches

“Marriage is a gift and has been given to all humankind. I am delighted that you are considering my services for your special day .”

Rev. Sue Woods

Marriage Policy

As a minister of Bala Port Carling United Churches “our marriage policy supports marrying any two people inside the churches or elsewhere (outside the church grounds).”

“Rev. Sue Woods made us both feel so comfortable and welcome.

She took the time to sit down with us, listen to our hopes and concerns, answer all of our questions and really got to know us.

She put our families at ease, and made our service beautiful

We were truly blessed to have Rev. Sue as part of our day.”

Our time together includes getting to know one another, planning your ceremony and sharing in the meaning of marriage and a lifelong commitment.
